APPLICATION PROCESS

To register, please complete and return the entry form overleaf, together with the nominated composition.

Receipt of entry will be acknowledged by email once the entry fee is received.

For school age applicants, a parent or guardian is required to provide contact details.

Entries close on February 1, 2024

Composers in each category are invited to submit solo piano works of maximum 5 minutes duration. In order to be considered for publication in Piano Teacher magazine, compositions must be no more than five (5) pages in length. For examples, please consult the Piano Teacher website:

<http://thepianoteacher.com.au/digital-resources/>

Composers are encouraged to conceive music that would appeal to student pianists and their teachers, guided by repertoire represented by the AMEB syllabus grades 3—6. Consideration will be given to artistic imagination, technical skill, ingenuity and suitability for young players. Works must be original (written solely by the applicant) and not previously published, although works that have been previously performed are permitted.

Results will be announced on the APPC website by 31 March 2024.
